

St. Matthew Home & School
Board Meeting
August 25, 2010

Principal's Report: There are 200 students enrolled with a budget of 205. A new music teacher was hired John Zafirro, all other specialty teachers are returning. The new playground equipment follow-up will begin once the school year begins with hopes of having it done before end of fall. The 3rd, 4th and 5th grade classrooms all have been updated with a new ceiling.

Treasurer's Report: Golf outing brought in $7353.16. The final numbers for the 2009-2010 school year are not in yet.

Vice President's Report: Cathy Gruszewski will be the chair for the Marcus Theater Fundraiser. Chairs are needed for the different restaurant fundraisers that are available. A chair is also needed for the cookie walk and the spring resale.

Old Business: Still looking for a President. In looking into compensating the SCRIP chairperson, the Archdiocesan guidelines state that at least 80% of hours should be volunteered.

New Business: The first general meeting will be September 8, 2010. Father Pat will install the new Board members. The teacher's baskets are done and delivered.
